What is Xtreme Bulls?

The Seminole Hard Rock Xtreme Bulls Tour, presented by B&W Trailer Hitches, showcases the PRCA's top bull riders and some of the rankest bulls the world has to offer. Xtreme Bulls events include a nine-stop Xtreme Bulls Tour that is managed, licensed and marketed by Winnercomm Sports of Tulsa, Okla., and televised on ESPN2 and ESPN Classic.

The pool of bull riders for the Tour includes the top bull riders from the PRCA World Standings as well as contestants who advance through Xtreme Bulls qualifying events.

In Xtreme Bulls events, every contestant competes in the first round, with the top performers advancing to the final round. The winner of the two-head average after the final round wins that stop's title. Money won on the Xtreme Bulls Tour counts toward the PRCA World Standings, which determine the qualifiers for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas.

In 2009, Cody Hancock of Taylor, Ariz., took home the Xtreme Bulls championship after earning $36,077 during the tightly contested Tour, in which his Finale earnings of $12,803 carried him to the top of a crowded field – the next seven contestants were separated by less than $4,800. No cowboy won more than one Tour stop, which has only happened once before, in 2004, when the Tour had only five stops.
